

From: Cromwell Center for Disabilities Awareness [kegan@cromwellcenter.org]

Sent: Tuesday, April 26, 2011 10:45 AM

To: kegan@cromwellcenter.org

Subject: E-News from The Cromwell Center

Having trouble viewing this email? Click here

E-News from the Cromwell Center

April 2011

In This Issue

June Dinner & Auction
New Executive Director

4th Grade Student

March 2011:

I have ADHD. Being in school is really hard.

Teacher

February 2011:

I saw the kids really tune in to what was being said. I liked how some of the group felt comfortable to talk about their own disabilities and how it reflects on their daily living.

Greetings Friends:

Reserve June 23rd for an entertaining evening of socializing and fund raising and attend our Dinner and Auction, this year with a special Red Sox Guest of Honor. Join us in extending a warm welcome to Juliana L'Heureux, the Center's new executive director.

Red Sox Dwight "Dewey" Evans to be Guest of Honor at Center's June Dinner and Auction

The Cromwell Center is excited to announce that Red Sox Hall of Fame Player Dwight "Dewey" Evans will join hundreds of Cromwell supporters as the Guest of Honor at a June 23rd Dinner and Auction fund raising event.

Evans expressed pleasure at being honored, and interest in supporting the Center's mission and programs. Dwight and Susan Evans have two adult children living with securely through our web site, or through the mail.

DONATE

Your gift helps us change attitudes in schools.

4th Grade Student March 2011:

I have Dyslexia, but I can still read. I never told my class before because I thought I would get teased, but now I am fine with it.

Quick Links...

CCDA Website

Our Blog

Join Our Mailing List!

Parent of a 3rd
Grader
September 2010:

neurofibromatosis, a genetic condition that can result in disabling physical and mental conditions. The children experienced numerous treatments and surgeries throughout life. "Trying to hold your children down to be tested or injected, over and over and over again," Dwight said in a 2010 interview with the Boston Globe, "It takes a toll," Susan chimed in. The couple has been active in patient information and parent advocacy groups.

Dwight and Susan Evans
Photo by Matthew West - Boston Globe

Awareness of the ways in which living with disabilities makes people both different and the same is what the Center's disabilities awareness programs are all about.

Join us for what promises to be a lively evening beginning with a social hour and silent auction, followed by dinner, Guest of Honor presentation, and an exciting live auction. Sponsor a table or purchase a ticket and help support the Center's programs by bidding on fine foods, dinners, get-aways, sports tickets and art work.

Cromwell Center Welcomes New Executive Director

Juliana L'Heureux has been appointed by the Cromwell Center's Board of Directors as the Center's new executive director. She is a registered nurse with a graduate degree in health care administration and a career in non-profit management. Most recently, Julie was executive director of the Maine Association of Mental Health Services, a public policy and advocacy

Hopefully her classmates were receptive to the info and took it to heart. I'd love it if she weren't bullied for learning differently.

group for mental health providers.

Julie has published in her field and enjoys free-lance writing. For many years she has contributed a weekly column covering Franco-American culture and stories to the Portland Press Herald. Julie is a native of Baltimore, Maryland, and has lived in Maine since 1981.

Jamie Kaplan, a co-founder of the Center in 2003, retired from his position as executive director in March of this year.

Forward email

This email was sent to kegan@cromwellcenter.org by kegan@cromwellcenter.org | Update Profile/Email Address | Instant removal with SafeUnsubscribe™ | Privacy Policy.

The Cromwell Center for Disabilities Awareness | 57 Exchange Street | Suite 205 | Portland | ME | 04101